Olivia's Spider Monkey acrostic poem.

Swing from tree to tree.
Picks stuggoother monkeys to clean.
Interrupts you by being cheeky.
Drinks from rivers and lakes.
Eats honey leaves and flowers.
Red face and black hair.

Makes noises for each of its feelings
Out in the air is good for the monkeys
Naughty monkeys you don't want to meet
Kind and harmless.
Exhausting and high energy.
Yucky and revolting.
