

English at Thorpe

Our curriculum develops and extends the children's ability to listen, speak, read and write for a wide range of purposes, including the communication of their ideas, views and feelings. Children are enabled to express themselves creatively and imaginatively, as they become enthusiastic and critical readers of stories, poetry and drama, as well as of non-fiction. Children gain an understanding of how language works by looking at its patterns, structures and origins. Children use their knowledge, skills and understanding in speaking, reading and writing across a range of different situations.

We aim to

- enable children to speak clearly and audibly, and become competent listeners;
- show children how to adapt their speech to a wide range of circumstances and demands;
- teach children effective communication, both verbal and non-verbal, through a variety of drama activities
- help them become confident, independent readers, through an appropriate focus on word-, sentence- and text-level knowledge;
- develop enthusiastic and reflective readers, through contact with challenging and substantial texts;
- to foster the enjoyment of writing, and a recognition of its value in a variety of media;

Reading

We teach reading through phonics sessions, individual reading, guided small group reading and shared whole class reading. Initially children begin to know the letter sounds and start to blend and segment words. As children develop their reading skills, comprehension and the ability to interpret and analyse a text becomes more important. Children are encouraged to discuss and explore how authors have used language in order to use this in their own writing.

Writing

Writing is taught throughout the curriculum across all subjects. Within English lessons the learning is divided into 3 week teaching blocks focussing on a specific grammar focus and genre of writing. Children are guided through 3 stages, imitation, innovation and invention to develop their writing skills and to apply the grammar focus consistently in their writing.

Below are the National Curriculum Objectives for each year group. EYFS objectives are included on Sapphire's Class page under long term planning.
