| Why do we celebrate with candles?  Festivals of light There are many different religious festivals that use candles to represent the light of God. Hanukkah (Jewish festival), Diwali (Hindu festival) and Advent (Christian Festival). To celebrate these festivals, design and decorate a candle. This could be on paper or card or you could decorate a real candle. You may want to use paint, glitter, scrap paper or holly. | How can we remember those who are no longer with us? Write a prayer or wish for peace.  | What shapes can I use to make a Christmas tree? Draw or make a Christmas tree using 2d shapes. What 2d shape could you use for the tree? What shapes could the lights, decorations and presents be? Can you write the names of these shapes too?  |
| What lights can you see at night? Go outside after dark in the evening. What lights can you see? What can you see in the sky? What other lights can you see, for example streetlights, car headlights, lights from houses? Do the lights come on the same time each evening? Draw a picture or write a list to show what lights you can see. | Moon watching - look at the moon over couple of weeks and draw the shape you can see. Does the shape change? Make a chart of what the moon looks like. Can you write a sentence to describe the change? | Teddy Bear's Picnic. Plan a picnic at home. Choose a friend, sibling or teddy to invite to a picnic. Write an invitation, plan some games, bake a cake, then have some fun. Send in the invitation for us to see, and maybe some photos of the food you prepare and the games. |
